

Shannon K. Tomlinson, MD

Certifications

Board Certified

American Board Radiology 2004 - present

Licensure

North Carolina Medical Board 1999 - present

Education

Undergraduate / Bachelor of Science

B.A., 1994 1990 - 1994
College of Wooster
Wooster, OH

Residency

Residency Radiation Oncology 1999 - 2003
Wake Forest University
Winston-Salem, NC

Medical School

M.D., 1998 1994 - 1998
Medical College of Ohio
Toledo, OH

Work history

Work

Hickory Radiation Oncology 1993 - present
Hickory, NC

Internships

Internship Internal Medicine 1998 - 1999
University of South Alabama
Mobile, AL

Professional Associations

Professional Organizations

American Society for Radiation Oncology (ASTRO)	1999 - present
North Carolina Medical Society	2003 - present
Catawba County Medical Society	2003 - present

Research, Publications, & Teaching

Publications

Tomlinson, SK, Melin, SA, Savage PD, Case LD, White DR, and Blackstock AW. Schedule-selective biochemical modulation of 5-flourouracil in advanced colorectal cancer. A phase II study with 10-year follow-up. BMC Cancer 2: 9, 2002.

Lee WR, DeGuzman AF, Tomlinson SK, and McCullough DL. Radioactive Sources Embedded in Suture Are Associated with Improved Postimplant Dosimetry in Men Treated with Prostate Brachytherapy. Radiotherapy and Oncology 65(2), 2002.

Presentations

Tomlinson, SK, Bourland JD, and Russo SM. Radiotherapy Treatment Planning with Positron Emission Tomography (PET) Imaging for Lung Cancer Alters Computed Tomography (CT) Defined Tumor Volumes. Poster presented at ASTRO meeting, 2001.

Tomlinson SK, Lee WR, McCullough DL, and DeGuzman AF. Neoadjuvant Androgen Deprivation Increases the Risk of Acute Urinary Retention Following Low Dose Rate Prostate Brachytherapy. Poster presented at ASTRO meeting, 2001.